

Keep Security Weird Austin B-Sides 2011

www.KeepSecurityWeird.org

Twitter.com/SecurityBSides

info@SecurityBSides.org

Event details:

An eclectic gathering of infosec people to hear awesome talks and have outrageously fun discussions! Our mission is to provide an inclusive, open environment for sharing and collaborative discourse on topics that most interest you.

The first Austin event was great, which you know if you were there. Security B-Sides Austin 2011 will be even better. If you have thoughts, comments, complaints, suggestions- or would like to volunteer, let us know.

Join the B-Sides mailing list, or send a message to:

- feedback\(at\)keepsecurityweird.orgkeepsecurityweird.org)
- Austin BSides lead – Michael Gough – mkgough@gmail.com

When: March 11-12, 2011

Where: The Walton-Joseph Building, 706-708 6th Street. (and beyond)

Cost: FREE ! (limited seating)

Register: <http://bsidesaustin2011.eventbrite.com>

That's right, we will be right on 6th St, near everything (or at least near I-35, the transit center, the convention center, bars, restaurants, and much more).

This historic building was built C. 1884, and has served as a retail store, boarding house, bar, church, shoeshine parlor, restaurant- and now a B-Sides Venue.

And the return of Hackers on Ducks !

Who should attend?

Developers, Programmers, IT Professionals, System administrators Information Security Professionals and anyone who is interested in knowing what information security is all about and how you can integrate it into your profession.

As always the cost is FREE and promises to be a weird time for all